

To Whom It May Concern:

Little Peoples daycare service is a prime example of how a daycare should be run. From the programs detailed scheduling to its top notch security procedure during the children's pick-up. The daycare provides a safe yet loving environment for both you and your child. The planned outings in which parents are welcome to attend are both tasteful and educational. The director of The Little Peoples daycare, Mrs. Theresa McNeil takes a hands on approach to any situation that arises. She also emphasizes the need to keep your attendance rate at a high level which highly unprecedented. I would recommend The Little Peoples Daycare to any and everyone looking for daycare services.

Sincerely,
